

Cooperative Speaking Leadership Skills Event

Objective: To develop the ability of FFA members to competently express themselves and to provide an educational opportunity to learn about the cooperative method of doing business.

A. Rules and Regulations

1. The event is open to all FFA members in good standing who are regularly enrolled in agricultural education at or above the ninth grade level during one or both semesters of the school year and who have not placed first in the state Cooperative Speaking Leadership Skills Event.
2. Each district will determine the number of individuals per school allowed to compete at the district level. Each district may send a maximum of two individuals to state competition.
3. A Cooperative Speaking participant may compete in only one of the following events in a given year: Junior Parliamentary Procedure, Senior Parliamentary Procedure, or Agricultural Demonstration. They are not eligible to compete in any other speaking leadership skills or employment skills events in a given year.
4. Each speech will be limited to eight minutes (warning at six minutes) and not less than six minutes in length. One point will be deducted for each second overtime or undertime. A maximum of five minutes additional time will be allowed each participant to answer questions asked by the evaluators.
5. A bibliography must be included as part of the participant's manuscript and direct quotes from any other source of information must be in quotes on the manuscript and identified with the bibliography. Charts and other visual aids, including audio-visual presentations, are allowed to assist the participant in delivering the message; however no point changes should result from use or lack of use of audio-visuals.
6. The participant's use of manuscript is prohibited at the district and state event; note cards are acceptable.
7. The participant will furnish four typewritten copies of the complete manuscript including cover page and bibliography for the district and state events. The cover page must include the participant's name, chapter, and title of the speech. The copies must be brought to the district event. For state competition, they must be received in the State FFA Office postmarked or delivered on or before March 1.
8. There is no assigned topic. Topics must be related to the cooperative way of doing business and benefits/impact of agricultural cooperatives.
9. The cover page and bibliography are mandatory.

B. Guide for Conducting FFA Cooperative Speaking Event

Prior to the event:

1. The order of appearance will be determined in advance of the event.
2. Hand out one of the following to each evaluator:
 - a. Cooperative Speaking rules and regulations
 - b. Official score card/Results sheets
 - c. Order of appearance roster
 - d. Manuscripts of speeches

Start event:

1. Each participant will be introduced by the individual running the event.
2. After the participant is finished, the timer will record the time and forward to the evaluators.
3. Each participant is to have five minutes of questioning from the evaluators. These questions are to be based on the speech. The answer or the question will be stopped at the five minute point.

After event:

1. Each evaluator should total each participant's score and arrive at the placing. Discussion between evaluators is allowed and encouraged.
2. Ribbons may be awarded according to the guidelines on the results sheets.
3. A critique sheet should be completed for each participant.
4. Two copies of the results should be completed on the form provided. List name/chapter of each participant.

Event dress:

1. Each participant should wear the official FFA dress as defined in the FFA Manual: Male—a white shirt, official FFA tie, dark trousers, dark socks, dark shoes, and FFA jacket. Female—a white blouse, official FFA scarf, dark skirt/slacks, dark shoes, and FFA jacket.
2. Points will be deducted for variance from official dress.
